Ethnicity

The table below is used to describe ethnicity. Please complete the application form choosing the appropriate category.

Parental Responsibility

From September 2008 it is a legal requirement for all schools to have information about who has legal contact with the child and who has parental responsibility.

Who has parental responsibility?

- if parents are married – both parents have parental responsibility
- if parents are unmarried
- if both parents register the birth and are named on the birth certificate then both parents have parental responsibility
- if only the mother registers the birth and is the only name on the birth certificate then she alone has parental responsibility
- adoptive parents have parental responsibility when the child is placed

Who does not have parental responsibility?

- unmarried fathers who do not register the birth of the child jointly with the mother and who are not named on the birth certificate
- step parents – unless parental responsibility is awarded by a section 8 Residence Order

What this means for you and the school?

- consent forms can only be signed by those with parental responsibility
- children can be collected by parents who do not have parental responsibility as long as the school have written consent from the parent who does have parental responsibility
